Father Cushing Dies.

Rev. J. R. Cushing, for many years a priest of the diocese of Denver, died at Mercy hospital last week after a lingering illness. He had been confined to his bed for five months. Father Cushing was given a mountain parish shortly after his ordination many years ago. He had then just graduated from a Canadian theological seminary. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held from the chapel of Mercy hospital on Friday morning. The solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Bishop N. C. Matt, with Rev. Father O'Farrell of St. Leo's as deacon, Rev. Father McMenamin of the cathedral as sub-deacon, and Rev. Father Donovan as master of ceremonies. There was no sermon and a selected choir, composed principally of the soloists from the cathedral, sang the mass. The body was laid to rest in the priests' lot in Mount Olivet cemetery.

John Coniff, for many years a resident of Colorado, died on Tuesday, Nov. 14, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. James J. Haydon, 1215 South Fifteenth street. The funeral occurred on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock with high requiem mass in the cathedral chapel. Mr. Coniff was a native of Ireland, but came to this country at an early age. He is survived by five children.

Xavier Lued, an aged and zealous member of St. Elizabeth's parish, passed away at St. Joseph's hospital on Wednesday, Nov. 15. He was buried on Friday from his late residence, 134 Tenth street. High mass was sung at St. Elizabeth's church, after which the various Catholic societies of which he was a member escorted the body to its resting place in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Patrick J. McCabe, whose accidental death was recorded last week, was buried from St. Leo's church on the afternoon of Tuesday, Nov. 19. Mr. McCabe was one of the first settlers of Lakewood, and to his industry and public spirit can be traced much of the good work that has been accomplished in Jefferson county in the last thirty years. He was a pioneer from Lakewood, Morrison, Golden and adjacent towns drove in miles to the church to be present at the last sad duty. The body was taken to Mount Olivet cemetery, where interment took place.

The pall-bearers were chosen from amongst the oldest and best known of the parish. They were: John L. Albrecht, Patrick Gavin, George Leining and J. J. Johnson. Besides his widow, Mr. McCabe was survived by three daughters, Mrs. S. F. Norton, Mrs. Kate A. Veidebeck and Miss Mary McCabe, all well known in Denver. Five brothers are also to mourn his loss.

Personal.

Mrs. Harry Fluckner and little son, Angelo, have returned from a visit with friends in Pueblo, Colo.

Mrs. Ernest C. Gilmore of 2825 Humboldt street is rapidly convalescing after quite a severe illness. Mrs. Gilmore's services have been greatly appreciated in the hospital of which she is a very active member.

Miss Inez E. Brown of 1967 Gaylord street is pursuing a course in music at Ann Arbor university. Miss Brown is very popular in church and musical circles.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Campbell and children left last Monday to spend the winter in Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Campbell is building a beautiful winter home at Santa Monica, which when completed will be the scene of many brilliant house parties in the winter to come.

Mrs. J. Frank Becker is visiting at her old home in Austin, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright of Tucson, Arizona, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter. Mrs. Wright has hosts of friends in Denver, where as Miss Maudie McPhee she is well remembered.

Mr. John J. Herman for ten years connected with the Brown Palace hotel, the past four years in the capacity of assistant manager, has left his connection with that house Dec. 1, and is going to Colorado Beach, Cal., where he will become first assistant manager of the world-famous hotel, Del Coronado. Mr. Herman's many friends, while regretting his departure, are glad to see him, as he is a popular businessman, a social favorite and an enthusiastic Knight of Columbus.

The Queen's Daughters met last Saturday for their monthly meeting at the home of the president, Miss Mary Sullivan, 1624 York street. The young ladies were very industrious on these occasions, and many are the warm, comfortable garments that will be ready for the Christmas distribution.

Much interest was being manifested in their next social event, which will be a Japanese tea on the evening of Dec. 12 at the home of Miss Sullivan.

Like the last it will be a silver offering tea, and like the last it will be a social and financial success. The money realized from these popular little affairs is used by the society in its philanthropic work.

On Wednesday evening at the Church of the Annunciation Miss Clara Caron, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Caron, became the bride of Mr. Frederick J. Layden, cashier of the Denver City Trustway company.

Rev. Monsignor Robinson performed the ceremony in the presence of a vast concourse of friends.

The bride was attended by Miss Mary McSheehy, while Mr. William Hauer acted as groomsmen. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, to which were bidden none but the immediate family.

Many beautiful presents were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Layden will be at home to their friends after Dec. 1, at 2215 Raleigh street.

A telegram received in Denver last week announced the death at Graton, Pa., of Mr. James H. Kelly at the venerable age of 94 years. Mr. Kelly was the father of Mr. Hugh O'Reilly of the cathedral parish and Mr. J. O'Reilly of Central City, Colo.

Miss Georgia Hughes will spend the winter at Hot Springs, Ark.

Five children Terence Owens on Tuesday last received a fine drill for the children of Logan avenue school. The necessity of careful training to avoid excitement in case of fire has been impressed upon those in charge of the institution and Chief Owens volunteered his services. He is enthusiastic over the fire drill and is anxious to see it adopted in all the schools.

The mother house of the Sisters of Charity at Cincinnati has under consideration the appointment of a directress for immediate conception school to succeed Sister Nolans, whose death occurred recently. It will be very difficult to find anyone who can fill the position so successfully as Sister Nolans. The appointment will be made after the mother superior confers with the various sisters directress and will be announced here within the next two weeks.

St. Mark's branch No. 238, Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association, assisted at a high mass of requiem offered for the deceased on Thursday morning at 8:15 o'clock at Logan avenue chapel. Rev. Mr. W. Donovan was celebrant and the children's choir rendered the music.

On Friday morning Father Donovan again sang a requiem for the departed members of Immaculate Conception branch of the same order. On both occasions the societies were fully represented. This is an annual memorial and the month of November is chosen on account of being dedicated to the poor souls.

The salient feature of the last meeting of the Sacred Heart Aid society was the report of the committee on the selection of a room in one of the hospitals where the society may take care of its sick. Mrs. W. F. Heine and Mrs. J. A. O'Connell were the ladies composing the committee and their choice of Mercy Sanitarium met with the full and hearty approval of all the members. The room is on the second floor near the elevator and very desirable location. The furniture has been delivered and will be in place this week so that by the time the patients arrive—which is being made in the near future—the room will be thrown open to the charges of the society. The next regular meeting day falling on Thanksgiving, the meeting has been postponed to Thursday, Dec. 1, at the residence of Mrs. William A. Boyle, 2360 Marion street. A full attendance is requested as it will be the occasion of the annual election of officers.

The first district commandery Knights of St. John, gave a card party at Liberty hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 22. The attendance was large. A series of similar affairs will be given throughout the winter months.

First Annual Ball.

Resplendent with lights and gay with music and dancing, the first annual ball of the Good Shepherd Aid association occurred on Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, at the Woman's club building on Glenarm street. A larger attendance than usual marked this occasion and the affair was in every respect a success. Immediately after the grand march tables were arranged in the large reception hall for a game of bridge, which was well patronized. The ladies of the association were the guests of honor. A buffet supper was served under the supervision of Mrs. J. J. Costello. Mrs. Margaret Holland was chairman of the press committee and to her clever means of advertising the success of the affair is mainly due. It is impossible at this early date to estimate the financial return, but judging by the attendance a neat sum has been realized for the sisters of the Good Shepherd to carry on their noble work.

First Annual Ball.

The pupils of the high school gave a social dance to their friends at the A. O. H. hall. A very good time was reported by all who attended.

Two hearse abreast, followed by a cortege of mourners and carriages, wound through the streets of this city Saturday morning in tribute of respect to the memory of John J. Moloy and his family. The funeral took place at the residence of the deceased at 9 o'clock and requiem high mass was said for them at St. Paul's Catholic church by Rev. Father Coogan.

It was the saddest sight seen in this city for many a day. The men were stricken down in the prime of manhood with the dread pneumonia. Both were taken sick on the same day and passed away within a few hours of each other in the same house.

The floral tributes were lavish and of beautiful design. The societies and from the many sympathizing friends.

In the procession that followed them to their last resting place on the hill were the Clerks' union, the Woodmen of the World and the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association.

The pallbearers for the late Mr. Moloy were C. Murray, William Linken, Rev. Father Coogan, Joseph De T. M. Egan and Thomas Phelan. The late Mr. Smith, James Cuddihy, Thomas McElroy, Thomas P. Murphy, John Minor, A. McIntyre and Frank Fitzpatrick.

BUTTE, MONT.

The remains of Tim Harrington, who died in Colorado a short time ago, but whose identity was not fully established until a brother went on and recovered the remains, arrived in the city over the Oregon Short line. He leaves a wife, three children, a father and two brothers—Dan J. and John J.—in this city, and Mrs. M. J. Harrington in Colorado. The funeral took place from the residence of his brother, Dan J., No. 3 Ridgely avenue, to St. Mary's church, where services were held.

John Meager has filed a petition asking for probate of the will of John M. Wilton, deceased. The estate is valued at $1,162.39, consisting of a house in Missoula and personal property. Meager also asks that he be appointed guardian of the four minor children of the deceased.

The funeral of Patrick Lynch, who died of dropsy at his home, 432 East Broadway, last Sunday, was held Saturday from the Sacred Heart church. The funeral procession was one of the largest ever held in this city, more than 300 vehicles being in line. Requiem high mass was celebrated over the body at Sacred Heart church by Father Callaghan, assisted by Fathers Lynch and Daly. Rev. Father Callaghan made a brief address upon the life of the deceased.

Mr. Lynch was a well-known member of the Miners' of the Independent Order of United Workmen, and a member of the Select Knights and Ladies, Maurice Keane, Joseph Earles, E. Coxson, Pat Carney, and John J. John Cummings were the pallbearers.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Prominent among them were those from the Select Knights and Ladies, a pillow and spray from the L. C. E. A., and a beautiful cross from the family.

The wedding of Miss Mary Mahoney and Mr. Wilfredo P. Henningsen, which was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mahoney, was a quiet, though beautiful, nuptial affair. The parties were prettily trimmed in chrysanthemums, white roses of delicate greenery entwined the chandeliers and fell over the mantels and doorways. The marriage rites were read by Rev. Father De Siera, and the ceremony was witnessed by the immediate relatives only.

The pretty young bride was attended by Miss Lulu Toole, while the groom's best man was Mr. Edward Custin. The bride wore a cream colored crepe de chine with a white hat trimmed with ostrich feathers. The maid of honor, Miss Nellie Cain, was gown in white and wore a large white hat. The groom and his best man, William Ahern, his brother, wore conventional black with buttons of carnations. After the ceremony a reception took place at the home of the bride's mother, Michael Schneider, on Chestnut street.

Miss Mary, daughter of John Travison of South Kansas, was married Sunday.

... JUST A ... REMINDER

That you shouldn't put off buying that Suit or Overcoat any longer. Cold weather is coming, so the weather man says. And it doesn't need a prophet to forecast this.

There is no better time to make your selection than right now, while the picking is good.

Our line of Suits and Overcoats are superior to any shown in this city. Stop in, if for only a look. Glad to show you whether you buy or not.

Rev. Father Callahan, a cablegram was received from the sister of the deceased in Donegal, Ireland, telling the undertaker to provide a respectable funeral and send the bill to her.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia Cote took place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Gaddard, 225 Maryland avenue, proceeding to St. Joseph's church, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father Callahan.

BOISE.

The Catholic ladies will hold a bazaar at the Y. M. C. A. building Nov. 27 and 28. The ladies will serve turkey dinner first evening, and chicken dinner second evening.

Attorney J. H. Hawley, who has been attending to the estate of his late wife, returned home Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Murray, who has been visiting in Boise, returned to her home in Nampa on Tuesday.

POCATELLO, IDA.

Edward Kinney of this city and Miss Minnie Dornody of Ogden were united in marriage last week in Ogden at the St. Joseph church. Rev. Father Cushman performed the ceremony. The bride, Miss Dornody, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dornody, and the groom, Mr. Kinney, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dornody. They are both well known in this city.

The offices of the Merchants' Protective association of Pocatello have been moved from the Cora block to the new St. Marie building on South Cleveland avenue.

Mr. H. Hewett of Seattle, representing the Northwestern Mutual Fire association, is in the city on company business. Mr. Hewett is greatly pleased with Pocatello and its surroundings.

EUREKA, NEV.

Mrs. A. McKay returned Tuesday from Tonopah, making the trip to Eureka overland in a private conveyance.

An earthquake shook Elko about 2:25 Saturday afternoon. The movement was from west to east and a lively one. The shock was felt all over town, but no damage was done.

The Planarian warehouse business at Reno has been purchased by Alf Doten, J. P. Burdick, W. B. Brown and F. J. Shair. With the exception of the first named, all of the new owners are Reno boys.

Rev. Father Manion left Thursday, Nov. 14, for Carlin, Elko county, where he held services on the following Sunday. He will be absent from Eureka two or three weeks, and Carlin will be his headquarters during the greater part of the time.

SEATTLE, WASH.

BISHOP CARROLL ATTENDS SERVICE IN WASHINGTON

Seattle, Nov. 16.—The laying of the cornerstone for the new Catholic cathedral in this city, marked a great epoch in the growth of Catholicism in the Pacific northwest.

When completed, the cathedral will represent an outlay of $350,000 and the site $55,000. It will be by all odds the most magnificent religious institution to be found anywhere north of San Francisco.

Bishop Edward John O'Dea personally and directly supervised the cornerstone ceremony and was assisted by prominent bishops and other members of the Catholic clergy, among whom was Bishop Carroll, formerly of Dubuque, Iowa, but of Helena, Mont.
